City's Float Applauded In Vets' Parade

Flower Bedecked Entry Of Legion Post Makes Hit In Pasadena Pageant

Every member of the Sierra Madre Legion Post 297 helped make this city's part in the State convention in Pasadena a memorable one the fore part of the week, and old memories were renewed as the Legionnaires and the Auxiliary participated in the three day carnival of color and fun as the Crown City was given into the hands of the soldiers' organization.

From the thousands of spectators that lined Colorado street to witness Monday's parade came applause as Sierra Madre's flower bedecked float passed by. "Carry On" was the legend of the entry, and the float, designed by George Quittner, well carried out this theme.

Luxuriant with the real blossoms of the flowering eucalyptus, trimmed with a variety of yellow and blue flowers, it was towed by a tractor, camouflaged as a war-time tank. The tank was realistic with its gun turret, housing a one-pounder that was a relic of the Spanish American war, and a modern machine gun.

The symbolic figures on the float were represented by the following local people. Benjamin Stinman was the Sailor, C. O. Welch the Marine, Commander-elect R. O. Shetler the doughboy. The Red Cross Nurse was Mrs. Lella Roberts, Mrs. Bertha Irvine stood for the Ladies' Auxiliary; Twila Stinman and Donald Miller were representative of the Junior Auxiliary and Legion. Harry Yoder and George Lovejoy were Guards. The tank was driven by Steve Petzel and Jack Mitchell was Tank Guard.

Commander Shetler, in commenting on the splendid cooperative work done by many Sierra Madreans helping to assure the success of the float, said:

"We wish to thank all our friends who donated flowers and who contributed their services on the actual construction of the float. While the ones who contributed flowers are too numerous to mention individually, nevertheless we are deeply indebted to them.

"Especially do we wish to make public our thanks to Harry Scott, Harold Roberts, Thomas Tyler, Vincent Fleming, and all the city officials who gave so much of their time. Wayne Morrison helped much by towing the float to Pasadena."

Lumber for the float was contributed by W. J. Schiltz, local contractor.

Former Post Chief R. O. Calkin, George Lovejoy, ex-Commander Art Embree and Commander Shetler attended all convention business meetings that were held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. A large number of citizens attended the exercises at the Rose Bowl Monday night and the elaborate street dance in front of the Pasadena City Hall Tuesday evening.

Hasten Payment Of Damage Awards To Canyon Park Area

City Business Manager Al S. Myers announced yesterday that Sierra Madre Canyon property owners whose land has been condemned by the city for purposes of road construction will receive cash judgments as awarded by the Superior Court in condemnation proceedings as soon as documentary agreements mailed recently for signature are duly signed and returned to the City Hall.

It is pointed out the amounts of the awards are liberal and fair and that the sooner the stipulations are signed and given back to the City, the sooner they may be filed with the Court and cash recompense be made. Any additional fees or litigation may be avoided by prompt action, Mr. Myers states.

Plea Of Cities For Public Works Fund Now Being Heard

Sometime next week the city of Sierra Madre will send in its formal request to the National Recovery Administration for the $350,000 in Federal funds requested for an elaborate civic improvement program that was mapped out last month by city officials.

According to City Business Manager Al S. Myers the city has refrained from submitting its plans until administrators of the three billion dollar public works fund were fully organized and ready to give definite answers to requests by the various municipalities.

Arcadia, already having submitted her request for aid, recently received word from the Emergency Administration of Public Works that the request had been noted and a conference would be arranged for the near future.

Allied Arts Plan Social Center Here

Prize Offered For Design Of A Pavilion In Floral Canyon

A tea room and pavilion built in the beautiful Floral Valley sector of West Carter avenue by the Municipal Art League for entertainment and social purposes, was in prospect this week as the result of a conference between members of the League and Mrs. Pearl Virginia Steinberger, head of the Players and president of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club.

Always with the ambitious plan in mind of the correlation of painting, music and drama, in the interest of a city art center second to none, the League will hold a cash prize competition for an appropriate design for the building. The contest will close September 1, and soon thereafter work will commence on the project, it is announced. It is planned to have the entrance and parking space on Carter avenue, with the tea room on property of the Fennel estate.

It has been definitely decided to merge the Players with the League, it is stated, and as soon as the governing boards of both bodies sanction the union, announcements will be made public concerning the effect on members of the Players.

Combination of the groups, it is pointed out, will not be made for any reason other than to strengthen both. Neither will lose its individual identity, but will cooperate with the other on occasion for mutual benefit.

BUILDER OF OLD BARN NOW MODEL FOR ART PUPILS IN WHAT HAS BECOME A STUDIO

IN the same barn that he himself built 40 years ago, L. E. Steinberger now sits as a model for the art classes of the Municipal Art League. When hayracks, and tool sheds, stables, and other such prosaic portions of the old structure on West Bonita avenue still showed shiny nail heads and smelled of new lumber it is extremely doubtful that even the most visionary could have guessed that one day the Old Barn would be polished up into an art studio. It probably would have sounded strange to L. E. Steinberger's ears if he had been told, when he settled in Sierra Madre in 1884, that an as yet unincorporated city would in the future possess a "unified art center."

When, as a child of seven, "Dad" Steinberger rode in a covered wagon across the desert plains to California in 1865, municipal fostering of the allied art interests was practically unheard of even in the great cities of the east. His hometown, Mechanicsville, Iowa, from whence the wagon train started, confined its art to lithographed calendars and beary daguerotypes.

By devoting his time to posing for the student artists, Mr. Steinberger is continuing in the same spirit of community service that he has since he commenced breaking the untilled earth of his West Mariposa ranch in preparation for the extensive orange groves and citrus orchards that now flourish there.

"My husband certainly didn't imagine," his wife laughed, "that his modeling was going to get quite so much widespread publicity. He didn't know what he was getting himself into. There isn't much to tell about him, except for the bare facts

Wide Range Covered By Art Exhibit

One Woman Showing By Bessie Ella Hazen At Little Gallery Pleases Patrons

Representative of her versatility in the water color and wood-print art field, an exhibit by Bessie Ella Hazen was opened at the Little Gallery in the City Hall Tuesday night. Comprising 13 color prints and 25 watercolor paintings, Miss Hazen's group of pictures covers a wide range of subjects, and are pleasingly subdued in tone without being drab.

Miss Hazen, for many years an art teacher at the University of California at Los Angeles, exhibited water colors at the school and in the Little Gallery last spring and so neither she nor her work were strangers to the assembly of art lovers who attended the reception.

"Temple Santa Monica," a woodcut of a temple in Guadalajara, is done in almost brilliant flame and red, forming a contrast with "The Old Sailor's House," which is a large print delicately shaded in pastel greens and quiet dull yellow. A "Street Scene in Mexico City," and "Our Back Garden" are other well executed prints, with more or less self explanatory titles.

In the water color division perhaps the most striking are "When Shadows Deepen," a scene showing lagoon waters brilliant in dusk, with darkened land alongside; and "Sunset in Imperial Valley," with its pale pink sky changing to washed blue above, and the hills slightly mist tinted, below. Others include "Tanks and Pipes," an unusual study of oil refinery machinery; "Night Lights," futuristically showing contrasting street lights and buildings in a city at night; "Snow on San Jacinto," which proves to be quite recognizable to those who have often seen the majestic, snow clad peak in winter from the floor of the San Gabriel Valley; "Cliffs of Laguna," "Cypresses," "In Balboa Park," and "Rock Castles," a scene of desert buttes.

A good turnout of townspeople attended the reception on the opening night of the exhibit, which will continue on the walls throughout the month. The patrons and patronesses for the evening were Dean and Mrs. Arnold G. Bode, Mayor and Mrs. H. Clay Reavis, Mr. and Mrs. Al S. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Eakman, Mrs. M. R. Englander, Mrs. J. Borradaile, Miss Ella Shepard Bush, Miss Ruth Ann Younglove, and Miss Margaret Griebelow.

Tax Bills To Call For Less In This City

Council Not Likely To Increase Rate In Face Of Drop In Valuations

Consideration of the municipal budget was postponed by the City Council on Wednesday until next Monday evening pending a reply to the city's application to the Board of Supervisors for an allocation from the gasoline tax fund for the relief of Canyon Park property owners assessed for improvement of Canyon streets and roads.

Authority to grant such relief was given by an act of the legislature that becomes effective August 21. The relief prayed for in this case would permit of a reduction in the tax rate for the three improvement zones in the Canyon area.

Meanwhile County Auditor Payne has furnished the Council with complete, official figures of the assessed valuation of property of all kinds in the city which will furnish the basis for all budget calculations and which show a decrease in valuations

Monrovia's Drop A Pair To All-Stars

Sierra Madre's All-Stars took two games from the Monrovia Stars during the week to give them three out of four games played by the clubs this season. On Friday the locals went on a batting spree, slamming the ball all over and outside the school field to lay up an 11-5 victory. Tuesday night the visitors were blanked on the same lot.

In Friday's contest the Sierra Madreans chased seven runs across the plate in the second inning by hefty wielding of the willow. Draman just about broke up the old ball game in this frame by dropping one over the fence with the bases loaded.

After his poor showing against the Azusa soldiers on Friday Pratt stepped into character against the Monrovia Tuesday night and pitched a two-hit game to shut them out by a 6-0 score. He was apparently in the same fine form as when he let the Baldwin Park veterans down with a solitary bingle. In his exhibition against Monrovia he was (Continued on Page Five)

City Rates Fair In Delinquent Taxes

In a tax statement received by City Clerk Waverly E. Pratt yesterday from County Tax Collector W. O. Welch, Sierra Madre's tax delinquencies on the 1932-1933 levies were given as $9,530, or 14.05 percent on June 20, when the delinquency began. This percentage of non-payments was a fairly medium figure, as compared with Signal Hill's low of 2.69 percent, and Lynwood's high mark of 42.16 percent. Monrovia, with delinquencies totaling $20,424 had a percentage of 17.09, San Gabriel was 20.92 percent in arrears, and San Marino stood fourth from the top of the list of county communities with only 9.39. No statement has been made public yet concerning the number of tax payments made since the levies became tardy on June 30.

Pasadenan Buys An Acre Homesite In Floral Valley

J. I. Irwin, of Pasadena, has bought from Andrews and Hawks through the office of W. R. Humphries, a slightly acre home site in Floral Canyon near West Carter avenue. The property is near the Fennel estate on which is located the great Wistaria vine and commands an exceptionally fine view of the San Gabriel Valley.

The new owner is associated with the Pasadena Board of Education and plans within the next few years to build a home. The work of landscaping the plot with this in view has already begun.

Unemployed Clean Up Fire Hazard As Weeds Destroyed

Thirty-five men of the Unemployed Relief Association were employed by the city this week in cleaning 136 vacant lots of dry weeds and brush. The project, completed Wednesday, was carried through by two crews of five men apiece, working in two-day shifts. Lots attended to by the city were those whose owners disregarded signs posted at the commencement of the fire hazard season instructing them to clean up and followed by two personal notices.

In a special meeting Monday night the City Council will approve rates to be charged property owners for the service, here of $367,035.00 under last year's figures.

The local tax rate of $2.40 per $100 of assessed valuation applied to the new assessment would yield $59,391.35, a decrease of $8,908.85 and the Council will be obliged to whack expenditures to this extent if the old rate is to stand. The probability of any increase is considered to be very remote.

Official figures of this year's assessment and a comparison with similar items for the tax year 1932-33 follows:

Value of Land	$1,627,290.00	$1,315,640.00

State Board Candidate Is Endorsed

At a meeting of representative men of the 48th Assembly District, held Wednesday noon at Altadena, and presided over by Frank P. Woods of Altadena, chairman of the Republican County Central Committee of this district, the name of Joseph H. Tumbach, of Altadena, successful business man and prominent civic worker, was put forward by members of the conference as a Republican candidate next year for a member of the State Board of Equalization from this, the Fourth Equalization district.

In a resolution urging the candidacy of Mr. Tumbach it is cited that, by placing of the collection of sales taxes, beer taxes, truck taxes, and franchise taxes in the hands of the State Board of Equalization, involving the levying and handling of a grand total of $100,000,000 a year, and by reason of vastly increasing the functions of this Board under the Riley-Stewart taxation plan, positions on this Board become of great importance to the taxpayers of California.

The resolution, which is on the part of the entire 48th Assembly District, heartily endorses and urges others to endorse Mr. Tumbach in the elections next year. The resolution speaks of Mr. Tumbach's qualifications as follows:

"We submit that Mr. Tumbach is especially qualified for such a post because of successful business experience; because of mental acumen, having a keen, analytical mind; because of his sound judgment; and because of his broad grasp of public affairs and his deep interest in all matters pertaining to taxation. Mr. Tumbach is a Republican of strong convictions and sterling loyalty."

Fine Home On West Montecito Bought By San Marinian

The former F. B. Olds home at 612 West Montecito avenue, considered one of the most substantial and desirable in Sierra Madre, has been sold by the Mercantile Building and Loan Association of Los Angeles to C. M. Wandries, of San Marino. The new owner will come here with his family, about September 1.

The property is improved with a two-story nine-room house of English design. It has a frontage of approximately 200 feet on West Montecito avenue, extending back 175 feet and is flanked by a tennis court and an orchard. It boasts a remarkably fine stand of pepper and eucalyptus trees.

Organization Formed To Put This City Behind NRA; Mass Meeting Is Called

Plan Municipality's Biggest Demonstration In City Park Next Friday

The program committee of the local N.R.A. organization has planned a large open air meeting at the city park next Friday evening at 8 p.m. to give expression to Sierra Madre's determination to support the President's plan for industrial recovery.

Through the efforts of W. R. Humphries and members of the committee, a varied program of information and entertainment has been arranged. Among those furnishing entertainment will be Naomi Seely Brown of Altadena, whistling soloist; Maryedith Darrell, ten year old dancer from Azusa; Bill Brown of the Southern California Edison Co., monologist and sleight-of-hand performer; Marianna Gardner of Pasadena, pianist and dancer; Charles J. (Daddy) Cordray with a bevy of "Minglin Kiddies" in song and dance numbers; and the "Sheriff," well known radio entertainer.

The principal speaker will be George H. Mosser of Pasadena, sent by the speakers bureau of the Pasadena division of the N.R.A. Mr. Mosser, who has the reputation of being a most interesting and inspiring speaker, will explain the object and plan of the N.R.A. drive and the importance of co-operation by every man and woman in the community.

Pledge cards of belief in and support of the NRA plan for individuals will be distributed among the audience and the Blue Eagle stickers for automobiles and windows will be given to those signing the cards, with the plea that they be prominently displayed in the windows at home. J. S. Billheimer, chairman of the local NRA organization, who will preside at the meeting, said today: "Our organization is planning a house to house canvass. We expect to have every resident signed up to support the President's program by supporting the merchants and business men who are NRA members, before we finish the campaign."

"We hope a very large number of pledges will be signed and turned in at the meeting and the Blue Eagle stickers put in the signers' windows. This will greatly simplify the work of the canvassers and will also relieve those displaying the sticker of the canvasser's call.

"The entire success of this huge National program is dependent, in the final analysis, on the co-operation of the individual consumer. The average man and woman must be behind it 100 per cent if it is to go over the top. No one should hang back thinking it is meant only for the 'big fellow.' The little fellows are more important this time. Once more it is 'the man behind the man behind the gun.'"

"The people of Sierra Madre will, I am convinced, show their loyalty and patriotism in no uncertain terms. This is no time for partisan or personal prejudices. We must all work together for the safety of our country in this war on depression as wholeheartedly as though a material enemy with battleships and aircraft were threatening her. The enemy is no less real. We have all suffered from the result of his attacks and we must present a united front against further suffering."

"As there have been no public entertainments in the park this summer, the committee feels that the combination of good speakers on a subject of good widespread interest and vital importance and the splendid entertainment program will draw the largest crowd ever seen at the park."

"Ushers will be present to assist those attending in finding seats and to help maintain order while the serious business of the evening is being discussed. The committee is hopeful that parents bringing small children will realize that order must be maintained during the speeches and that they will cooperate with the ushers in keeping the children quiet."

May Alter Lines Of Thatcher's District

There was a report about the court house in Los Angeles yesterday that the Board of Supervisors would act within a few days on the application of Supervisor Roger Jessup to have the lines of the First Supervisorial district changed so as to include all of Pasadena and that the action would be taken before the return of Supervisor Thatcher from Washington.

Committees Will Seek Support Of Every Citizen Through Signed Pledges

An organization has been completed and plans perfected for an intensive campaign that is expected to record Sierra Madre's citizens 100 per cent behind the plans for National recovery before Labor Day.

With only the business interests awaiting formulation of their codes not signed up under the NRA, a campaign has been launched to line up every consumer in the city behind the firms aligned with and flying the NRA insignia and to carry out the President's plea to "buy now" so that the merchants assuming the additional responsibility and expense incurred by adherence to the NRA program may be able to carry on.

Plans have been made for what is expected to be the largest mass meeting in the city's history at the City Park next Friday evening, the various organizations will be asked to secure pledges of their members to support the NRA program and finally there will be a house-to-house canvass to enlist the wholehearted interest of every citizen who has not signed a pledge and been enrolled when the canvass is undertaken.

The local organization was formed by President J. S. Billheimer of the Chamber of Commerce in response to a letter from NRA headquarters in Washington urging that the chamber take the initiative in the matter and indicating the lines upon which an organization should be constructed. On receipt of it Mr. Billheimer called a meeting of the heads of the city government and all the local organizations at La Case Vieja tea room last Friday.

Mr. Billheimer was elected president and authorized to appoint an executive committee, a general committee, a publicity, a finance and a program committee. He asked that heads of the various organizations present appoint a member to represent each organization on the general committee and to have them attend a meeting at the City Hall on Monday evening.

At this gathering Mr. Billheimer announced the appointment of an executive committee consisting of Wilbur F. Thayer, Jr., L. R. Goshorn, R. C. Copenhaver and Billheimer ex-officio. Appointments made by the various organizations resulted in formation of a general committee consisting of W. S. Hull, representing the Merchants' Association; Lester K. Layton, City Council; Harold Roberts of the Kiwanis Club; Mrs. Woodson F. Jones, representing the Woman's Club; Joseph Swanson, of the Volunteer Firemen; C. C. Beaudine, representing the Unemployed Relief Association; and Victor Hill of the American Legion post. W. F. Thayer was made vice-chairman and R. C. Copenhaver withdrew as secretary in favor of Mr. Hill.

James N. Hawks, W. R. Humphries, Mrs. John H. Osgood, Joseph Swanson and R. O. Calkin were appointed on the program committee to which was entrusted the work of organizing and holding next Friday's mass meeting with the suggestion that it arrange a second meeting in the school auditorium later in the campaign.

Mrs. Jessica H. Wright was appointed chairman of the publicity committee, the other members being Mrs. Woodson F. Jones and Lester K. Layton.

The various committees went immediately to work and plans for next week's mass meeting had been completed at noon yesterday. A finance committee to raise a fund to carry on the campaign will be announced in a few days and plans are being perfected for the city-wide canvass to immediately follow the mass meeting and for which volunteers will be asked.

Observance of the NRA call for shorter hours and more pay has resulted in the employment of eight or ten additional persons in local business establishments, with the probability that the number will be increased within a few days.

Having pledged support to the N.R.A. program, the Keystone Express System whose service covers Sierra Madre, this week announced that immediately upon signing the President's code the system increased its personnel 40 per cent, reducing the working time of all employees from 60 hours per week to 40 hours.

INFLATION MOVES BACK TO SPOTLIGHT

A few months ago the most talked about subject of them all was inflation. Then it practically dropped out of the day's news. The President had been given the powers he wanted, and nothing drastic happened. It looked as if they wouldn't be used after all.

Now inflation is preparing to take its place in the headlines again. The Administration's desire for a "managed dollar" has not been abated; it was simply shelved for a time while other and more pressing matters were being handled. A managed dollar is one which, in terms of buying power, does not deviate in value; it will buy as many eggs, automobiles, suits of clothes and what-not one year as the next. Our present kind of dollar is constantly deviating. Where its buying power on the basis of a fixed normal, was sixty or seventy cents at the height of the boom, it rose to $1.50 at the low in commodity prices we reached last summer and fall.

The President has two courses open in inflating the currency. Most obvious course is to lower the gold content of each dollar. Then by varying it from time to time, the dollar will theoretically possess a constant value, and will be immune to important variations. Another course is to order the Federal Reserve to buy large blocks of government securities in the open market, thus expanding the Federal credit. This would not create a stable dollar; it would, however, be tremendously helpful in providing a market for new Treasury securities.

Opponents of inflation say that the managed dollar is a golden dream which is impossible of realization, and point to the disastrous effects of extreme inflation in Germany and elsewhere. Administration spokesmen say that mismanagement of the plan doesn't necessarily mean the plan is wrong. The public, confused by technicalities, is simply in a waiting mood.

SAVING A DOLLAR MAY BE COSTLY BUSINESS

The saying that it's never too late to mend, doesn't apply to physical property.

In these days, every community has its share of homes and business buildings which have been allowed to depreciate to the point where they are ready for the wrecking crew. Their degeneration may be laid to the door of false economy. While a dollar was "saved" temporarily, many dollars were lost because of it.

There are hundreds of thousands of properties which can still be put in good condition at a moderate cost, but which will be gone beyond redemption if work is put off much longer. Today we can still get in on bargain prices for most supplies and commodities—tomorrow will tell a different story. The wholesale price level has been skyrocketing and now the retail level is beginning to follow. You don't have to take anyone's word for it that this is the time to build and repair—the cold and unprejudiced statistical tables tell you that, and they permit of no argument.

Build now, improve now—provide jobs and purchasing power—remember that investment and employment are cheaper than charity, and that they make charity unnecessary.

"Before I resolve to do the one thing or the other, I must gain confidence in my own ability to keep my resolves when they are made."—Abe Lincoln.

Observations

By Lee Shippey

GOOD old neighborly Ourville!

We forgot to pay our gas bill last month and this month the attention of our helpspend was called to it in no uncertain tones. But we were preparing to take Chuck to the hospital that day and she forgot to mention it to me. So, the day after the operation a determined-looking man hammered on our door and, with no thought of lowering himself to the point of tipping his hat to a lady, announced to our mother-in-law:

"I want this money or I shut off the gas."

She explained that we hadn't been at home for three days. "Well, is this Shippey a responsible person?" he demanded.

That, I must admit, would have been an embarrassing question to me. I would have hesitated to say "Yes." However, our mother-in-law asserted that we were, and the man left with a solemn warning that he'd be back very soon and then there'd be no monkey-business about it. Our mother-in-law, who is foreign-born, was awfully worried until a neighbor phoned the local office.

After one has been a pretty reliable customer for a good many years this is amusing and a bit annoying. When I asked at the local office, where I always have been most courteously treated, I was told that the terrified-of-foreigners "must be the hard-boiled collector from Monrovia."

The question arises, why is it necessary for the company to send hard-boiled collectors from Monrovia and, in these days, when so many men with both courtesy and judgment are out of jobs, why is it necessary to employ a collector who apparently has little of either, even in Monrovia?

I wouldn't want this man or any other man fired in these times, but I hope he learns a little ordinary courtesy before he comes to my house again, and makes some inquiries at the local office before he makes threats, about me or any other citizen of Sierra Madre.

CHISLERS HOLDING PROSPERITY BACK

"Exit the Chiseler." This is the heading of a page advertisement by one of the great tire manufacturers. The theme of the advertisement is that the whole business picture has changed—because the public has started in not only to buy, but to buy selectively—to seek out not merely low price, but sound substantial value as well. Discussing "Chiseling," William Feather in a well known trade magazine has the following to say: "Why isn't this as good a time as any to stop the practice of beating the profit out of every estimate before an order is placed? We can't have prosperity if current practices are continued. Bankruptcy for American business will be the consequence. The publisher of 'Construction Methods' suggests that all business suspend for a period of six months the practice of buying at the lowest bid, and place orders with those bidders whose prices most nearly meet the average of all the bids submitted. We need, he says, a 'chiselling holiday.' If each of us waits for the other fellow to conduct his business fairly before we quit bluffing and brow-beating our suppliers, we will never correct the vicious system of price slashing. Like all other reforms, the reform must begin at home. It ought to begin today."—Chronicle, Toledo, Iowa.

BRINGING NEW WEALTH TO LOS ANGELES COUNTY

Active Harbor Scene. Insets: Profitable and Unusual Foreign Markets.

Within the last five years the total of $640,914,653 of foreign money has been brought to Los Angeles County through foreign trade—an average of over $128,000,000 yearly. On the other hand a total of $234,124,942 has been sent to other countries for raw products and merchandise, leaving a balance of trade in our favor of $406,789,711 for the five years—an average of $81,357,985 a year. This is all new money added to the taxable wealth of the community and is cumulative, and affects every resident of the County.

For the past five years more than 63 per cent of the gross money obtained from our export trade has actually stayed right here in Los Angeles County. This is new money. This has been brought about in part through the county exploitation fund and the Foreign Commerce and Shipping Department of the Los Angeles County Chamber of Commerce.

The Los Angeles-Long Beach harbor is unique among the principal ports of America in that it is not to appreciable extent a "port of transit." Most of the exports through this harbor originate in this territory. There are major developments under way in the harbor at the present time that are being sponsored directly by the Los Angeles County Chamber of Commerce and the Foreign Trade Department is developing markets for locally manufactured goods that give a direct outlook for our products which, in turn, means work for many people. More tons of American products leave this harbor than any other harbor in the United States. This is no mistake; Government figures prove the statement.

In A Social Way

THE Wee Kirk O' the Heather, Glendale, will be the setting for the wedding of Miss Theone Lindgren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lindgren, of Los Angeles, and Ted Davis, son of Mrs. Ethel R. Davis, 145 San Gabriel Court, this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The bride, gowned in white wool lace and satin with white hat and nose veil, will be given in marriage by her father. She will be attended by her sister, Miss Louise Lindgren, as maid of honor, who will wear a yellow gown. Neal Robinson will serve the groom as best man. A soloist will render "For You" and "I Love You Truly," during the ceremony.

A reception will follow at the home of the brides parents at 1875 West 43rd Place, Los Angeles.

Following a honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead the young couple will make their home in El Sereno.

A very beautiful garden wedding at the home of Mrs. Laurence Macomber, 940 Arden Road, South Pasadena, on Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock united in marriage Miss Elsie Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Talbert, of Laguna Beach, and Frank Foster, son of Mrs. E. C. Foster, of 65 South Baldwin avenue. The ceremony was solemnized before a large fountain, banked with orchid gladiola and pink amaranth. Rev. F. Holland Burr read the marriage service.

The bride was lovely in a gown of blue georgette crepe and was attended by Mrs. Evangeline Laswell, as matron of honor. Mrs. Laswell was gowned in peach. Edward C. Foster Jr., served his brother as best man. During the ceremony a harpist rendered a group of selections.

The young couple are honeymooning in the north, spending sometime at Santa Barbara and Carmel. Upon their return they will make their home in San Bernardino, where Mr. Foster is employed in the San Bernardino County Savings Bank.

Miss Roberta Scott entertained at a surprise shower of pewter ware on Friday evening at her home, 195 Santa Anita Court, in honor of Miss Margaret Mootie. A scavenger hunt was the entertainment of the evening with Mrs. Martha Fisher, of Pasadena, winning first prize and Misses Virginia Roess and Margaret Mootie shared honors for the second. Many out-of-town friends, as well as local ones attended.

Miss Mootie's marriage to Graeme Smith will be an event of September 5. After a short honeymoon the couple will leave to make their home in Philadelphia.

Complimenting Mrs. Tom Tyler, a most enjoyable travelogue party was given on Saturday evening by Mrs. Fred Hooker Jones at her home, 139 West Orange Grove avenue. Mrs. Jones read an interesting account of her vacation motor trip with the Tylers this summer and each of the guests told of experiences and trips they had taken. The audience was transplanted to Canada, Mexico, fishing trips in the High Sierras, fiestas, and other places of interest. Assisting Mrs. Jones were Mrs. Frank A. RUTH CHATTERTON AT COLORADO THEATRE

Ruth Chatterton in "Lilly Turner" holds the spotlight at the Colorado Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, August 20-22. A five-act vaudeville show will be given on the stage Sunday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 23-26. Eugene O'Neill's "The Constant Woman" is screened.

Featuring Stanley Fields, Clair Windsor, Leila Hyams and Conrad Nagel, this play, the latest of O'Neill's to reach the screen, revolves about the influence which one woman wields—even after her death—over the lives of three persons, her son, her husband and an actress friend.

Told against colorful background of tent-shows and circus life the picture is reported to be up to the exceptional standard of "Strange Interlude" and "Anna Christie." Those of the nation's movie goers who have not yet become acquainted with the art of their foremost playwright will be anxious to see "The Constant Woman," and those who are already familiar with him will greet the film with the enthusiasm such an event of importance deserves.

Those anxious to invest in a going concern should make sure which way it is going.

Child Critically Injured When Run Down By Motor Car

Ilean Grace Wernicke, five-year old daughter of William Wernicke, 265½ Mariposa avenue, was in a critical condition in the Pasadena Hospital this week as the result of being struck by an automobile at the intersection of Mountair and Wilson avenues in Pasadena Monday afternoon.

Suffering from internal and chest injuries the child was given an even chance for recovery by hospital attendants. She was playing in the street with other children when hit by a machine driven by T. J. Rosenauer, of Santa Susana. The driver told police that he had slowed down upon seeing the children at play, and was not aware that he had run little Ilean down until he stopped his car.

What right has any one to take a billion dollars from the public and leave it to worthless progeny?

Local Sport Paragraphs

By John Copeland

THERE'S no two ways about it. Mr. Pratt can have his baseball, Mr. Fuller can have his tennis, Mr. Edwards can have his boss-shoes, Doc Woehler can have his golf—the whole shebang can take their various and more or less strenuous pastimes and be darned.

As for us, when the thermometer nears the 100 mark, well there is just one sport that has any sense to it. The equipment needed is a trout pole, a can of bait, and a moss-covered piece of shade somewhere about 10,000 feet in the lake country of the Sierra Nevada.

As a matter of fact we, personally, could even do without the pole and bait. All necessary is the shade and one of those ice-water like lakes, with a squirt of high pinnales capped with snow, to sort of provide mental refrigeration. Along near dusk the rod might not be unhandy. Boy oh Boy! Imagine it sometime when the sky is broiling—wading knee deep up a crystal tributary in the Kearsarge country, flicking bright flies over the surface of the lake and the thrill of a sudden live weight challenging your thin line, as the air commences to chill with night.

No sport limited to a squared court, a confined space, may equal that.

Off a bit on the wrong track last week we mentioned the possibility of an Austin-Vines match at the L. A. Tennis Club during the nearing Pacific Southwest championship play. Now it appears that Perry, not Austin, will put in an appearance for England. He'll be backed by F. H. D. Wilde, all-England plate champion, the British Davis Cup doubles ace H. G. N. Lee, and Edward Avory.

Remember last year, Perry took Jiro Satoh of Japan in the finals, after the little Japanese had defeated Vines. Thus placing Vines in the unusual position of challenger for the Southland crown this year.

Since appearing in Los Angeles last season Perry has proved his mettle thoroughly on several occasions. His victories include the Davis Cup win over Vines, his defeat of Allison and Cochet, and finally his climax win from Andre Merlin.

So now all that stands in the way of the big match—Vines vs. Perry, is the Pasadena player's final decision to enter the tournament. That and the remote possibility that one or the other of the top boys meet with an upset. With very few exceptions tennis runs true to form however.

Ellsworth Vines, we have a suspicion, in the event he does enter the P.S.C. go, will enter with the very firm purpose of winning. Much of his former smartness quite probably has been sweat out of him in the past months of strenuous playing, and by his several defeats. With no conceit to weigh him down, the U.S. racket laurels' sad state to inspire him, he should be at the peak this fall.

Following is a summary of the city league's batting story. The dope is taken from Bill McDough's weekly schedule that's been appearing regularly in his ad in The News. None of the statistics mean so very much without a complete compilation of times as bat, etc. If charted you'd notice a strong zig-zag downward from the first toward the end of the season in the various batting averages. Apparently it worries the lads the more often they have to step up to the plate.

First, the S. M. Furniture outfit's top men have been Brain and LaLone. Brain started off swell (.636), but held the lead only three weeks; then LaLone started batting a pretty consistent game, with an average fluctuating from .500 to a low of .408. Harkness has stayed put in second position under LaLone, for the most part of the past weeks.

The Kiwanis club seems to have no single man with an especial lease on top page . . . Draman has been in the .500 column lately, but has been up only about half as often as some of the others. Toward the opening of the ball season Parker was going strong, batting .462 to top, then he dropped out of the game because of illness after second in the percentage column to Pratt, and Ross. Pratt, by the by, started on a fifty-fifty basis, rating a .500 after his moniker awhile, and continuing every now and then to jump into the lead. Levinson went strong for a time, being right under Draman of late.

In the St. Rita ranks the hard smacking crown jumps as follows: Morago, Morago, Hinojos, Hinojos, Hinojos, Ostlund, Ostlund, Hinojos—and three more Hinojoses, thus putting Everett along toward the eventual top.

E. LaLone holds the goods for the most part in the Junior Legion, being displaced once by Lieben, twice by Clayton, and twice by his brother, R. LaLone. My gosh, come to think of it, the LaLone brothers might make up a separate league. There's one or two of 'em on most every team here . . . Clayton has been consistent, staying right close to the LoLones.

Wheeler, batting from .800 to a recent .355, has held his position in the Bethany 4-12 team, throughout.

APPLICATIONS FOR RELIEF GROW LESS

If figures mean anything—and 'tis said figures don't lie—improvement is in progress throughout Uncle Sam's domain. Report from Washington says that 14,500 American families left the relief rolls during July in 45 representative cities. Accordingly relief expenditures decreased from $27,087,369 to $24,801,845.

World Famous Pianists Will Play at Bowl

An outstanding attraction of the Hollywood Bowl "symphonies under the stars" season will be the appearance of E. Robert Schmitz (top) and Alfred Mirovitch, renowned pianists, playing the Mozart double concerto in E flat on Thursday evening, August 24. Bernardino Molinari will conduct.

"PICKUP" COMES TO THE ARCADIA TODAY

Greater than "Bad Girl," is Vina Delmar's latest contribution to the screen, "Pickup," which is screened at the Arcadia Theatre tonight and Saturday. Starring filmland's newest team, Sylvia Sidney and George Raft, the picture is supplemented by a varied bill including a Paramount sound newsreel, an animated cartoon, a comedy and a travelogue.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday Jean Harlow and Clark Gable appear in their latest drama, "Hold Your Man." A Jack Haley comedy is also on the program.

For one day only, Wednesday, August 23, Ramon Novarro will appear in the fiery role of the desert shiek, "The Barbarian." Myrna Loy takes the part of the girl who was carried off on her bridal day by her lover. "She Outdone Him," a travesty cartoon on Mae West's play, also will be featured. Starting Thursday is "Mama Loves Papa."

OLD IRONSIDES IN WATER FRONT FILM

The visit of the U.S.S. "Constitution," popularly known as "Old Ironsides," to San Pedro, while the company making "I Cover the Waterfront," was on location, had a particular significance for James Cruze, director of the picture. For it was Cruze who several years ago directed a picture titled "Old Ironsides," off the coast of Catalina Island.

Claudette Colbert and Ben Lyon in "I Cover the Waterfront"

"I Cover the Waterfront," stars Claudette Colbert, Ben Lyon and Ernest Torrence, will be shown at the Lyric Theatre, Monrovia, next Sunday and Monday.

The current picture, "The Devils Brother," starring Laurel and Hardy, Dennis King and Thelma Todd, closes its run tomorrow night.

Called Sacred Pillars

Many Scottish people today believe there is something sacred about pillars of stone. In Aberdeenshire such pillars were believed to be the abodes of spirits and sometimes demons. Some farmers place upright stones about their fields in the belief that they are propitiating the gods.

Mark The Date---It Rained Generously Tuesday August 15

Rain fell heavily, drumming noisily on heat taunted awnings and dampening sun brittle roofs here in the early morning hours Tuesday, and so momentarily broke the heat that last Friday sent the thermometer soaring to 110 degrees, the highest the mercury has risen in five years. Only .06 inches of moisture was precipitated from the sky in a series of showers commencing at 2 a.m., and although the earth immediately absorbed every trace of dampness the weather cooled perceptibly in the next days.

Preceding the rain the temperature, as recorded by Colonel H. B. Hersey, stayed up between 96 and 110 degrees between August 10 and 14, seldom dropping below the century mark in the daytime. Not since September 1929, has there been any heat comparable to that of the past week, and at that time 105 was recorded.

But there is still opportunity for the summer to break the latest record, as September is invariably "warm."

NEW SCHEDULE OF BOY SCOUT MEETINGS

Due to the small attendance at the Scout meetings of Troop 1 during the summer, the gatherings will be held hereafter every other week at the Congregational Church instead of each Friday. The new plan is being carried out in view of the fact that many of the Scouts are out of town on vacations. Last Friday the boys met at the homes of the patrol leaders. Tonight the regular meeting will be held.

Over Half Million Persons Dependent On County Support

A plan whereby the Federal government in cooperation with Los Angeles county in the near future will remove certain heads of families from the charity list and place them in homes of their own on half acres of self supporting land was outlined Wednesday by Supervisor Baine in Los Angeles. Baine stated that there are now 120,000 families, or 504,000 individuals, being supported in full or in part by the county, and that many of these are of the highest type of American citizens.

Improvement Adds To Size And Safety Of School Grounds

When the children of the local grammar school find vacation time gone, grudgingly force their sunburned feet into shoe leather again, and start off toward the ultra modern version of the little red shack, there will be compensations in the form of improvements added during the summer with R.F.C. funds allotted the school board.

This week men are at work grading the portion of the playgrounds just south of the tennis courts, after constructing a storm drain which takes the place of ditches and heretofore shut that section off from the children at play. The improvement will considerably increase the play area and greatly improve the appearance of the grounds besides contributing much in the way of safety.

Athletic equipment, such as swings, rings and merry-go-rounds, has all been overhauled and put in A-1 order for the coming session. In addition to the utilitarian improvements, beauty is having its fling. The Japanese lotus flowers, which were planted in the ornamental pool in the garden patio of the grounds several years ago by the Japanese of the city, have burst into bloom for the first time. Lawns and flower beds, perhaps owing to their vacation from busy young feet, are all at the height of effectiveness.

AND AFTER ALL WE SEEK CONTENTMENT

Intelligence is what you get from home. Common sense you must develop yourself. Learning is what you obtain in school. Knowledge is what the world hands you. Judgment comes only with the years. Experience is a bitter medicine administered by life itself, and must be taken with a bit of conscience. Wisdom is a phantom often chased but seldom overtaken. Success or failure are a matter of opinion. Reputation is the golden scale. Contentment is the final objective.—Buckeye, Archbold, Ohio.

POINTS WAY TO REACH THE BUYING PUBLIC

No branch of general education which reaches the masses of the American people can point to greater achievements than can country journalism, says the Manufacturer and Industrial News Bureau. According to N. W. Ayer & Son's Newspaper Directory for 1930, 9,261 smaller daily and weekly newspapers in towns of 25,000 and under, have an aggregate subscription list of more than 20 million readers.

"It is a great mistake to overlook or exclude the country newspaper in general advertising campaigns," says the Bureau. "We believe that these newspapers reach a greater potential buying market in a more direct manner than, probably any other medium."

Assemblyman Turns Mileage Check Back To State Treasury

A news dispatch from Sacramento told of the commotion created in the State Controller's office by the fact that checks for mileage had been sent to members of the State Assembly for the July session of the Legislature. It was pointed out that the constitution makes no provision for payment of mileage in a recessed session of the Legislature after the session has lasted one hundred days.

Assemblyman Frank G. Martin, of this 48th Assembly District, received a check for $46.20 and immediately sent it to Ray L. Riley, State Controller, with the following note:

"I have received a check for $46.20, seemingly coming in the official way and purporting to be for mileage. I know no action of the Legislature to this effect.

"Feeling that this may not be according to Hoyle, I am returning this sum of $46.20, to be put back on the State treasury if the check was sent improperly or illegally. I believe you will understand and appreciate my position. I did not ask for or expect mileage for the last session. I do not want one penny which does not come with absolute propriety and with unquestionable legality."

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

WE could tell a lot of things this week that may border on common gossip, but who in the fire department wants to read that kind of stuff—most of them know it already. We know that the boys are not all angels, and maybe some of them keep three point two suds and home brew in their ice boxes—we don't know this for sure. Some of them go to Los Angeles or Pasadena occasionally and we often wondered what they went there for, for it is well known that they are every one of them "buy at home" advocates. However, we won't probe too far into the reason as to why they leave town once in a while, especially during the big convention in Pasadena.

The Chief had a birthday last week and a group of the men and women of the department gave him a genuine surprise party. A large gathering had a very nice time. One of the mysteries of the party and one that leaves an anxious curiosity delving in the back stage of a few of the fellows minds, is "How do you tea-kettle?"

Ice cream and cake was served by the ladies. The cakes were made by the women folks, Mrs. Vern Udell honoring the Chief by making the birthday cake. A good time was had by all.

Several of the firemen had very important calls from outside of Sierra Madre during last Friday's meeting, which was sort of coincident as it were. The calls started coming in early in the evening and continued until late at night, Lovell and Walsworth getting the last one. But then, we are telling things out of school, of which we had sworn off.

A few of the fellows are preparing to go to the Firemen's convention soon. There may be some real worthwhile gossip to tell after that—there generally is. "Fire's Out."

"GROWING PAINS" NEXT ON PLAYHOUSE BILL

"Growing pains," the new comedy of adolescence by Aurania Rouverol, author of "Skidding," will have its world premiere at the Pasadena Community Playhouse next Tuesday evening following the current third week of Lloyd Corrigan in "Man of Wax."

George Offerman, Jr., Leon Holmes, and Dick Winslow, are additional child screen players, added to the cast, in which, Gilmore Brown, producing director, has previously announced Junior Durkin and "Baby" Peggy Montgomery, together with the author, Mrs. Rouverol and her daughter Jean.

A. L. A. Activities

By Minnie Stinman

ONE of the most important A. L. A. meetings of the year was that of August 10, when the officers for the ensuing year were elected. Those who will assume the responsibilities of their various offices next month are Leila Embree, president; Ornelia Stinman, 1st vice-president; Bertha Irvine, 2nd vice-president; Minnie Stinman, recording secretary; Dorothy Shetter, corresponding secretary-treasurer; Augusta Coats, chaplain; Edith Woodruff, historian; Catherine Miller, sergeant-at-arms; Elizabeth Goodier, marshal; Nell Mathis, Louise Roe and Lucile Pickett, executive board.

The president, recording secretary, historian, sergeant-at-arms, and executive board were elected by unanimous vote. All other officers received a majority of either three or five votes.

Hostesses were Mrs. Roe and Mrs. Olsen. They served most delicious refreshments. As Mrs. Roe was obliged to be absent, Edith Woodruff assumed her duties.

Owing to the fact that our very efficient publicity chairman, Dorothy Shetter, is so busy attending convention that she has no time to write about it, this column is going to fall far below its usual high standard of interest and entertainment this week. However, Dorothy promises that next week we shall have an account of the parade, convention, reception and everything.

Plan Garden Party On Lawn Of Tarr Estate August 30

The Sierra Madre Woman's Club will hold a summer evening garden party on the lawns of the R. M. Tarr estate at 283 West Central avenue, Wednesday, August 30, it was announced this week by Mrs. Al Myers, head of the committee in charge of party arrangements.

Swimming Party Arranged For Y.P.S.

A swimming party for the Young People's Society of Bethany Church has been announced by Mary Sheriff, social director, for Tuesday evening.

Some more cool news. Ben Smith and Lawrence Limbaugh are spending this week in the frigidness of the San Jacinto peaks. However, perhaps it hasn't been so arctic with mountain conflagrations and all. At the same time, these fellows are learning a lot of things which we'd like to know, too. And they are giving us the report of this conference at the Sunday evening meeting of the Y.P.S.C.E. They'll be sure to have a lot of interesting tales.

Intermediate C.E. will be led in its discussion by Yoneko Aisawa this Sunday night. All junior high aged folks are invited to gather in Bethany Hall for an interesting meeting.

PLANTING VACANT LOTS

By Jessie Ward Russell
Landscape Gardener

MANY people own lots that they are holding expecting to build their home there some day. A few of these look ahead enough to start landscaping their lots now so that they will have some very fine fruit and shade trees and shrubbery ready grown when they build.

I wonder that everyone does not do this. It is easy enough to draw out a plot plan of the lot, make an approximate outline of the house, garage and driveway and then dot places for the trees and shrubbery. The expense of the water and shrubbery is little compared to the added value of the lot and even if you should decide later not to build, the lot will resell at an advantage because of the planting. Anyone would prefer a landscaped lot to a barren one and would be willing to pay more for it because of its added beauty and usefulness.

Several times I have been asked by customers to help them plan such a lot and it has given me pleasure to create a garden spot out of an unattractive vacant lot.

Some people might hesitate to plant their lots because they do not know where they will be placing their house eventually but that question is easy to decide.

There is a pretty set rule as to how far back from the street the house should be set. They are usually set back the same distance as the others in the block. On a 50 foot lot the house should be placed to one side of the center of the lot to leave room for a drive on one side. On larger lots the house can be placed in the center, the distance from the street being determined by the other dwellings in the neighborhood.

All the planting of trees and shrubbery can be done in advance of the building except the foundation planting and close up trees. It takes time to grow good trees and shrubs and if these are established, the new house will be much more attractive in its prettier setting and give great joy when ready for occupancy.

Azusans Cop A Close Game From Locals

Legionnaires Pile Up Six Errors And Pratt Has Bad Inning To Lose 13-12

Wave Pratt's pitching wing went suddenly wild Friday night, the local soldiers' errors piled a bit too high, and the Legion team took it on the chin to lose from Azusa 13 to 12. Reavis went to the mound in the seventh in an attempt to rake the game from the coals, but although he tossed well, allowing only three hits, the jig was up.

Olsen, smashing out four hits in five times at bat including a two-bagger, topped the batters, and Young knocked a circuit clout in the second inning after Sierra Madre had stayed scoreless through the first. Pickett took first by way of an error, and Reavis fanned. Olsen singled, scoring Pickett, and Welch made the last out.

Hill, first up in the third, went out. Harkness smacked a two-bagger and scored on a single by Pratt. Evans singled, bringing in Pratt. Pickett got on through an error which allowed Evans to score. The fourth and fifth innings went by sans scoring.

Reavis opened the sixth by flying out to second. Olsen hit for a two-bagger and was brought in by a similar hit of Welch's. Hill struck out. After Evans opened the seventh with an out, Young reached first through the left fielder's error and reached second when the center fielder boosted Pickett's rap—Young scoring. Reavis was thrown out and Olsen singled. Welch singled, scoring Olsen, and Welch made the final out of the inning.

Leading in the eighth, Hill was tagged on his way to first. Harkness singled and Mathis popped out to left field. Harkness scored and Evans flew out to first.

In brief, Azusa made two runs on an error in the first; scored three in the third when Pratt got waverly and walked the wrong man, the outfield made a critical error and Boone hit a homer. Again in the fifth the winners tallied, and in the sixth a single and a double brought two in. Two more in the seventh and an additional pair in the ninth sewed the evening's bacon up tight. Sierra Madre, regardless of the loss of this game, remains in second place in league standing.

Increase In Tax Rate Is Protested

Supervisors Find Public In
No Mood To Accept
Higher County Levy

A vigorous protest is going up throughout Los Angeles county over the reported intention of the County Supervisors to disturb the current county tax rate of 88 cents. Publicity recently put forth was obviously intended to prepare the citizenry for an increase to about a dollar per $100 of assessed valuation, it being announced that an additional $17,000,000 would be required to carry on the increased charity load and that the rate might jump to as much as $1.30.

Chambers of Commerce and other civic organizations in various sections have adopted sizzling resolutions and protests have showered in to the Supervisors from every side. Through N. J. Cordray, its president, the Los Angeles Realty Board has filed a protest declaring that any proposed increase is "obviously without justification." Among other things the board says:

"There is no justification on the part of the supervisors to blame a tax increase on increased welfare work, in the face of the amount of delinquent taxes reported, amounting to more than $14,500,000.

"Since, exclusive of welfare relief, approximately 80 per cent of the entire county budget is represented in salaries, obviously there must be reductions in this item, if the taxpayers of this county are to have any relief from over-taxation."

Offices of the supervisors were jammed with protesting property owners yesterday to enter verbal protests. There was much confusion and many of the taxpayers showed they had lost patience with the policies being pursued by the supervisors. Their expenditures were denounced as "profligate" and "unreasonably high" and Supervisor Quinn frequently rapped for order.

Prior to the meeting Quinn told a delegation of excited Inglewood citizens that while the present rate of 88 cents might be increased the amount actually called for on the tax bills would probably be less than now because of the reduction in assessed valuations.

"It does not appear that the board must increase the tax rate, but as a matter of fact tax bills will be less," he said. "The 88 cent rate of last year would have brought in twice as much revenue three years ago as it will today. In other words, tax bills of three years ago would be just as high today if the rate itself was $1.56. Therefore, an increase to a dollar or more actually represents lower bills.

Valley's Printers Organized Under NRA Code For Trade

Under the name of the San Gabriel Valley Printing Trades Association the printing crafts of this district were organized at the Pasadena Athletic Club on Friday night for operation under the N.R.A. Recommendations for the code to be adopted for the government of fair trade practices were forwarded to a meeting to be held in Chicago where the National code is being drawn up.

The district was divided into three areas, Sierra Madre being in the third, extending from Sierra Madre to the eastern county line and south to Puente. Each district elected three members of the board of directors, those from this section being W. C. Stevens, of the Pomona Progress-Bulletin; C. O. Shoop, of the Puente Journal and H. B. LeBaron, of Monrovia.

W. F. Hannaford, of Pasadena, was elected president. W. C. Stevens, vice-president, and E. A. Burns, of Pasadena, treasurer. Harry J. Smith, of Pasadena, was elected secretary-manager and will have headquarters in the Crown City. The N.R.A. requires that all printing establishments shall be members of the organization or be specially licensed by the President and obliged to operate under the association code.

Carrying Art League Idea Many Places

Visitors To The "Old Barn"
Studio Prophecy Movement
Started Here Will Spread

That the Sierra Madre Art League is fast becoming known not only in neighboring communities but outside of the State as well has been evidenced in the past weeks by the many inquiring out-of-town visitors to the "Old Barn" studios on West Bonita avenue.

Mrs. Milford Thompson last Monday brought as her guests three distinguished visitors including Miss Florence H. Fitch, superintendent of art in the Indianapolis City Schools. Miss Fitch was most enthusiastic over the League and said it was unbelievable that so much has been accomplished in such a short space of time. So interested was she in the manner in which the League was organized and is being conducted that she requested a copy of the application form and questionnaire to be filed as reference upon her return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Walker of Los Angeles were both delighted at the studio and products of the students. Mr. Walker, who is connected with the archeological department of the Southwest Museum, expressed his opinion that the movement started here for free instruction in art would travel far and wide and be an inspiration to many other communities in this and other states.
